THIS Twelfth Edition of HILL'S ALPHABETICAL ARRANGEMENT brings the lists down to the Conferences of 1873. The Editor has been favoured with many communications containing suggestions and corrections, some of which have materially assisted him in the endeavour to make this Edition both accurate and complete. Some, however, were too late to be useful. They arrived after the sheets were printed to which they referred. Other corrections have not been adopted, for reasons assigned in the Advertisement to the last Edition. Various modifications of appointments as made by the Conference occur on Mission Stations; but it has been deemed desirable to adhere to the Minutes of Conference, lest one official Connexional document should seem to contradict another.

The Lists of Names and Appointments of brethren in Canada and Eastern British America are omitted, because those Conferences are no longer in Affiliation with the British Conference.

The arrangement for recording the deaths according to the year in which they were reported to the Conference having proved inconvenient, the former practice has been reverted to, and they are recorded according to the year in which they actually occurred.

LIVERPOOL, January, 1874.
